

Conceptual Selling®

Customer-Focused Interactions

Overview

Every interaction with a customer is too important to leave to chance. Conceptual Selling® Customer-Focused Interactions helps salespeople better prepare for their time with customers. The result is purposeful meetings and Win-Win outcomes.

To maintain a highly-competitive sales force, every interaction with customers must be conducted to either move an opportunity forward or improve the relationship. This program enhances how salespeople execute in all of their interactions with customers, whether a scheduled multi-attendee meeting or an impromptu one-to-one.

Anytime a salesperson meets with a customer there are two processes happening simultaneously. While salespeople have typically been trained to focus on the selling process, from the customer's perspective there is also a buying process that must be recognized and understood.

Solving this misalignment between these two processes is an outcome of Conceptual Selling® Customer-Focused Interactions.

There is no such thing as one-size-fits-all solutions or value propositions for customers. The only way to understand what will help you win is to ask the right questions and listen. This program provides the simple, repeatable structure that should be considered essential for anyone who interacts with customers.

Conceptual Selling® Customer-Focused Interactions supports organizations in their efforts to:

- Execute against a plan to be a more customer-focused organization
- Differentiate your sales team against competition
- Professionalize your sales force
- Engage cross-functional departments in your customer management strategy
- Eliminate non-productive customer meetings
- Ensure opportunities are advancing toward closed business with every interaction
- Strengthen customer relationships

Differentiate Yourself

Good selling begins with asking relevant, dialog-producing questions, and listening. Without first understanding the business obstacles a customer is facing, it is impossible to qualify the opportunity or propose an effective solution. World-Class Sales Organizations are more than twice as likely to take this important step with their customers. This is just one of the best practices that have helped top-performing organizations drive 20 percent better growth in year-over-year account acquisition when compared to other organizations.

In a large deal, we always gain access to key decision makers.

"I finally understand what it means to be customer focused and there is an execution plan to do it."

— Executive General Manager, Banking
